

Sofreh Aghd

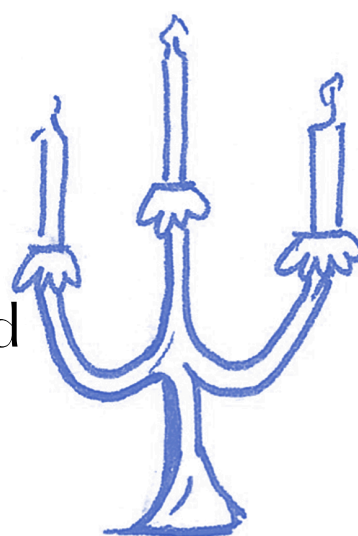

The Sofreh Aghd is a traditional Persian wedding spread or tablecloth rich in symbolism, representing a sacred space for the union to take place. The display holds ancient cultural significance and symbolizes the hopes and blessings for the newlywed couple's future together.

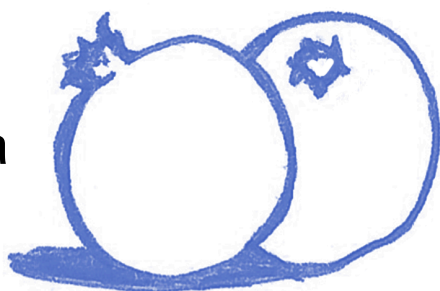

A mirror represents reflection and the couple's bright future together

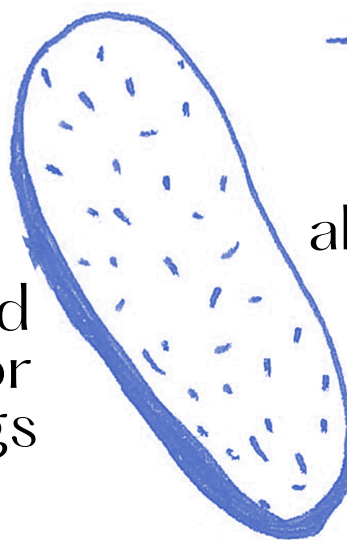

Candles symbolize energy and clarity

Fruits for health and a joyous future

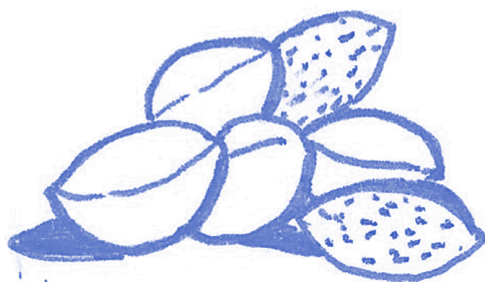

Bread and wheat for abundance and prosperity

A sacred book for blessings

Nuts to symbolize fruitfulness and abundance

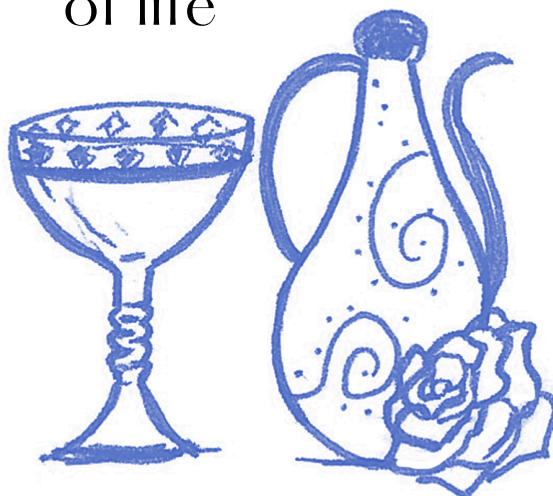

Esphand or wild rue for spiritual protection

Sweet pastries for a sweet life together

Honey represents the sweetness of life

Sugar cones to shower the couple with sweetness

Rose water to perfume the air

